FAMILY PERSPECTIVES

Today's gospel talks about the last supper of Jesus. Notice that this meal, like all the other meals in Jesus' life, to growing up in Nazareth, started with a blessing. When we eat as a family, it is important to start with a prayer. Praying reminds us that we sit at a table to do more than eat. We gather to share our lives and strengthen the bond that calls us to live our lives for one another.

BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

The solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ has a long history – as a devotion when few actually received Communion and as the subject of festive processions. Today we look to it as a celebration of the centrality of the Eucharist in our lives as Christians and Catholics.

- As written in the Second Vatican Council's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, "The liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the church is directed; it is also the fount from which all her power flows." How is what I do aimed at liturgy, especially the celebration of the Mass? How does what I do flow from liturgy? How can I avoid making liturgy merely another thing I do?
- In what ways do I find myself renewed by the celebration of the sacraments, especially the Eucharist?
- What is my understanding of the sacrifice of the Mass? How do I enter into that sacrifice, and how does it open up into the rest of my life? How can I lead others into it?

DEACON FRANK O'CONNELL'S 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Deacon Frank has been on the St. Jude Parish Staff for over two years and we would like to thank him for his ministry to the parish. All are invited to come and celebrate Deacon Frank's silver anniversary.
