Fr. Frank P. Kosem has been pastor at St. Jude since 1985. He is the fourth pastor since the establishment of St. Jude in 1943. As pastor, he is entrusted in a special way with the spiritual care and well being of the parish. He does so by providing the leadership necessary to respond to and meet the needs of the parishioners. The parish staff functions as an extension of his responsibilities and together seek to serve the people of the parish in the best possible way. There are over eighty part and full time employees on the staff of both school and the parish with an annual budget of almost three million dollars. The school has 420 students – preschool through eighth grade. The parish has over 2,200 households, which represent nearly 6,200 people. (ext. 115)

Rev. Mr. Pat Humphrey has been on staff for 13 years. Deacon Pat is presently chair of the Theology Department of Elyria Catholic High School teaching senior religion as well as campus ministry director for the last 8 years. Deacon Pat and his wife Donna have been members of the parish for over 31 years. Donna is also music director for the Contemporary Choir. They have 3 grown children.

Rev. Mr. Frank J. O'Connell has been on staff since July 2006. Deacon Frank is presently involved with ministry to the sick and homebound of the parish, 72 Men's Prayer Group. He is the WEB and communication director of the parish, (i.e., monthly GrapeVine, Ministry/ yearly Stewardship Catalog updates). Frank has a prayer for healing ministry (AT THE WATER'S EDGE MINISTRY) offering healing missions and retreats around the country and through the Internet. Deacon Frank and his wife Bev have three grown children and four grandchildren and have been parishioners since 2005. (ext. 104)

Sr. Margaret Marszal, HM has been on staff since August 2007. She is a Sister of the Humility of Mary, Villa Marie PA. As a Pastoral Associate at St. Jude, she facilitates the PSR (Parish School of Religion) and Adult Faith Formation for the parish community. (ext. 111)

Mrs. Susan Kuchenbecker is responsible for the RCIA process, bereavement support, and baptism preparation. She is the staff support person for the Social Concerns Commission and all of the committees beneath their umbrella, Stewardship Commission and its committees. Susan is an advanced candidate for Pastoral Ministry certification and is currently pursuing a Masters of Theology at St. Mary's Seminary. She expects to be completed with her studies by the end of 2010. (ext. 110)

Mrs. Rozann Swanson has been a Catholic school principal for twenty years and began serving the community of St. Jude School as principal in June 2003. As principal of the school, she oversees all aspects of the educational and instructional program. She works closely with students, parents, school staff, and parish staff to establish a strong faith community and to ensure standards of excellence are met. She and her husband, Bob, are members of St. Ladislav Parish and have three children: Julie, Karen, and Eric. 366-1681

Mrs. Suzanne Lester has served the community of St. Jude School for ten years. As the assistant principal at the school, Suzanne works closely with faculty, staff, and parents to ensure student success. She is also responsible for the financial operation of the school and teaches math to sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students. Suzanne and her husband, Frank, have been members of St. Jude Parish since 1995. Their three children are Justin, Collin, and Jacqueline.

Mr. Terry Struckely joined the St. Jude staff in the summer of 2008. He assists Fr. Kosem with the planning, organizing and directing of the general parish operations and day-to-day business affairs. Terry and his wife Jeannette have been parishioners of St. Jude since 1985 and have two daughters, Julia and Janet. (ext. 107)

Mrs. Cindy Kozma recently joined the staff in May 2008, as Parish Treasurer. She was previously a controller with Allied Waste for 18 years. She is involved with the Parish Finance Committee, Parent Club, and is a CYO Coach. She and her husband Mike are lifelong members of St. Jude and both attended St. Jude School. They have two daughters that are currently enrolled at St. Jude School and are busy with various activities.
